

Covering all angles of Casualty Liability

The Casualty product is a combined liability insurance that protects your business against claims for compensation and legal defense costs arising from unexpected or unintended incident or claim.

The Agile Casualty product has three distinct sections. Public and Products Liability protecting your business from claims arising from injury or damage to third parties. Statutory Liability this covers businesses and individuals for unintentional breaches of certain New Zealand statutes, which may result in fines or other penalties. Employers Liability can provide additional protection for situations not covered by ACC.

What the policy covers

- Public & Products Liability – Up to $20,000,000
- Statutory & Employer's Liability – Up to $5,000,000
- Competitive deductibles starting from $500
